How We Use Your Information

We use your information to:

- Provide services and estimates
- Contact you about scheduling, invoices, or service updates
- Send reminders or follow-ups
- Keep business records
- Occasionally share updates or offers

We do not sell your information.

Subcontractors and Service Continuity

In rare cases such as scheduling conflicts, travel, or if we're unable to complete a service, we may partner with a trusted local subcontractor to fulfill your service. If this happens, we'll let you know in advance and only share the minimum information needed (such as your name, address, and email) so they can complete the job.

If McMethods LLC ever closes or relocates, we may work with a trusted contractor to ensure existing service commitments are honored. With your permission, we may transfer your information to them to support a smooth handoff.

Third-Party Services

We do not share your mobile phone number, text messaging originator opt-in data and consent, or other information with third parties or affiliates for marketing or promotional purposes.

We may enter your information into trusted services we use to run our business, such as Zoho, Google, Microsoft, OpenPhone, and WaveApps. These services handle your data according to their own privacy policies.

Payments

We do not collect or store your payment information ourselves. Payments are processed securely through WaveApps.

Data Security

We use strong passwords and limit access to your information to members of our LLC. We use trusted tools and platforms and take reasonable steps to keep your information safe.

Your Choices

You can contact us at any time to request a copy of your information, ask for corrections, or request that we delete your information (unless we are required to keep it for legal or business reasons).
